Dear Valentino

I hope you're well. We (STAVATTI AEROSPACE, Ltd.) are making significant headway. I'll explain more about that in a minute. I want to cover some business details first.

The Problems:

Let me be clear: I don't want to get attorneys involved in our business. It will waste your money, and ours with no increased benefit. We will literally be throwing money away. I would rather that go to our solutions. I just want to stay in contact with you (daily if you'd like) until we pay you back your principal and get our business contracts launched.

The Delay:

I was going to reach out to you and ask you to call the dog off, but my wife was injured and had to go to the ER to get treated for a concussion. She had a very bad response to the concussion. I say we tell our attorneys to go away and we'll call them another time when we really need them for other matters.

The Good News:

We just signed a multi billion dollar MOU. It is still classified so I can not disclose the customer or details of products being delivered. What this means is We will be selling equity very soon of which we can and will pay you back. This will move the equity investors we've been working with through DelMorgan, to fund round A, $35M, and round B, $130M.

Conclusion:

Please stand by, work with me, and let us close the business in front of us. Attorney's will prolong the process. Let's just work together to close our business together, and get you paid. Please let me know your thoughts. Thank you

Kindest regards,

Brian D. Colvin
